DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-33 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-16, drawn to a method of identifying an agent which alters the interaction between a mutant protein tyrosine phosphatase and a tyrosine phosphorylated polypeptide, allowing formation of a complex between the tyrosine phosphorylated peptide and the substrate, classified in class 435, subclass 196.
- II. Claims 17 and 19-25, drawn to a method of identifying an agent which alters the interaction between a protein tyrosine phosphatase and a tyrosine phosphorylated polypeptide, allowing dephosphorylation of the substrate and comparing the fluorescence energy signal level of substrate which remains phosphorylated, classified in class 435 , subclass 196 .
- II. Claims 18-25, drawn to a method of identifying an agent which alters the interaction between a protein tyrosine phosphatase and a tyrosine phosphorylated polypeptide, allowing dephosphorylation of the substrate and comparing the fluorescence energy signal level of substrate which remains phosphorylated, classified in class 435 , subclass 196

- III. Claims 26 and 28-33, drawn to a method of dephosphorylation of a substrate by a protein tyrosine phosphatase, classified in class 435, subclass 196.
- IV. Claims 27-33, drawn to drawn to a method of identifying an agent that regulates dephosphorylation of a detectable substrate by a protein tyrosine phosphatase, classified in class 435, subclass 196.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I-IV are patentably distinct from each other because they have different effects and utilities.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: claims 9-16 are drawn to different mutant protein tyrosine phosphatase.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 8 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
